A moment with Steve

My mom, Judy Seilhymer, passed away this past month. The following psalm was enclosed in a sympathy card from a fellow parishioner at Northridge. Reading it brings me comfort, so I thought I would share it with you. -Steve

Psalm of Praise by Pastor Louise Hilbert

God who knows all and sees all, yet loves us still
 Reveal yourself to us in this moment.

In the darkest night and deepest sorrow, you are there
 Bringing hope and courage, strength and peace
 That no other could ever give.

I cry to you for help in the midst of the raging storms of life.

In the overwhelming needs and limited resources

In the face of criticism and complaint.

In the glimmer of hope shining in the distance I see your face

Beckoning to me to come into your presence and rest

To come and drink from the water of life which flows forever.

You have been my help in life's alarms

My shelter from the little deaths that assail me.

You have saved me again and again and claimed me as a precious child.

O Mighty God, you are my rock and my salvation.

Announcing

New small group Bible Studies starting this fall.

FREEDOM in CHRIST 1st & 2nd Corinthians

In his two letters to the people of Corinth, the Apostle Paul provides guidance to church members, both new and established, about what it means to be a disciple... a follower set free in Christ to be the grace of God in the world. Paul's encouragement is just as relevant to the people of God today!

Groups will meet in various places and at different times of the day – depending on your schedule. Sign-up now and we'll get you into a group that fits your life!

Read a good book lately?

The Gertrude Rognlie Memorial Library at Eidsvold has some excellent books. We recently received a beautiful gift from Gertrude's son, Paul. The gift consists of three books with DVD's. One is Tocqueville and the American Experiment. It covers democracy which was new in 1835-1840. He believed democracy was the way of the future. Second we received a study of Genesis by Professor Gary Rendsburg. The third one is America's Founding Fathers which consists of people, some I bet you have never heard of. Come and check these out-take one home, watch it and bring it back. They are on the table in the fellowship room. Thanks to Paul Rognlie for his generous gift to our library.
